FREE SCREENINGS OF LOCAL FILM, THE ANGEL WITHIN
At The Avalon Theatre in Easton September 2, 2010

Local media production company, Thayer Entertainment, LLC, is screening Robert Thayer's new feature film The Angel Within. The film is a narrative that deals directly with the sensitive issue of teen suicide. Laura, played by New York City actress Kellyn Lindsay, attempts to take her own life by crashing her father's small Cessna aircraft in the wilderness. Scott, played by New Jersey actor/model Robert Nuzzie, lives in the wilderness to escape the ills of society, and does his best to set her broken leg. While Scott builds a raft to get Laura back to civilization, a romance blossoms as Laura learns to reconnect with life, love, and hope. The story unfolds as Laura explains her experiences with Scott to Dr. Johnston, a psychiatrist played by Easton actor Tim Weigand. Baltimore band, Fools & Horses provided their song "I am the Ghost." and wrote an original song for the film entitled, "The Equation."

The film was shot entirely on and over Maryland's Eastern Shore. Contributions from many local businesses and individuals made it possible to make the screenings free to all wish to attend. After each screening, Thayer Entertainment will pass out forms to get feedback on how to make the film better before they submit it to film festivals for their consideration.

Thayer was inspired to write and make this film when he read of a string of teen suicides in his home County of Caroline several years ago. Thayer says, "They are just too young to look to suicide as a solution. We hope this film saves at least one teen from making that decision." Thayer rewrote 60 versions of the script over 15 years. Thayer adds, "As I finish editing the film, I find myself rewriting the story again." Thus, the film was cut down from 118 minutes to about 93 minutes.

Doors open at The Avalon Theatre at 7:00 p.m. for the first 7:30 p.m. show. Doors at 9:00 p.m. for the 9:30 show. 30 page programs are for sale for $10 and can be purchased in advance online at <https://www.createspace.com/3468625> Admission is free but donations are appreciated to help fund future projects. Thayer Entertainment's next feature film, Bail Out, a political satire about a small town who collude to rob a bank to save family homes from foreclosure, will be shot this Fall in Easton.
