Community Arts Block Party!

Saturday, July 17, 2010

The Foundry, 401 Market Street, Denton

Sponsored by the Caroline County Council of Arts, Inc.

The Caroline County Council of Arts, Inc. invites the public to attend their 4th annual Community Arts Block Party. Attendees will enjoy a free celebration of the arts – with live entertainment, artist demonstrations, art activities for all ages and lots of fun for the whole family. There will be dancing in the streets with music by Dave Hawkins. Dave is an accomplished musician who sings vocals, plays the guitar, the violin, and the harmonica. Food and drink concessions will be available, including pit beef, pork BBQ, and hot dogs from Grills on Wheels.

Participants can explore the restored historic Wilson's Foundry Dwelling at 401 Market Street, Denton –home of the Caroline County Council of Arts and The Foundry community art gallery where over 35 local artists have their artwork on display. Also on display in The Foundry are over 75 glazed tiles from the Community Tile project. Back by popular demand, attendees will have one more opportunity to paint tiles at the event.

The event will be held Saturday, July 17th from 5-9 p.m. on Fourth Street between Market and Gay streets at the site of the 401 Market Street building. The event is free this year. Proceeds from gallery sales and food concessions will benefit the Caroline County Council of Arts. The community is encouraged to come out, have fun, show support, and find out more about the Arts Council and its many programs. For more information, contact the CCCA office at 410-479-1009, ccartscouncil@verizon.net.
